

I am strongly opposed to waekening the Federal Do Not Call List legislation. I understand attempts are being discussed to do just that. The law is not strong enough as it is and it shouldn't be diluted anymore. No loopholes should be added to the current legislation that would allow telemarketers/companies to contact me if I don't want that. Thank you for your consideration on this matter.